1. Introduction

The party organizations at the Grass-roots level of the secondary colleges of colleges and universities, centering on the fundamental task of establishing morality and cultivating people, adhere to the cognitive problems from practice, firmly follow the road of theoretical system of socialism with Chinese characteristics, further improve the learning mechanism of the theoretical learning center group of the class, educate and guide Party members and cadres to realize the initial, keep the initial and practice the initial mind, pay attention to the normalization and long-term nature of theoretical armed forces, and take the Grass-roots level as the basic level. The improvement of the ability and level of Party organization construction promotes the high-quality development of all the work in Colleges and universities, laying a solid political foundation for the cultivation of high-quality talents.

2. Highlight the Political Construction, and Constantly Improve the Leadership, Execution and Combat Effectiveness of the Leading Group of the Secondary College

2.1. Firmly Establish "Four Consciousness", Enhance "Four Self-confidence" and Achieve "Two Maintenance"

China should further study and implement Xi Jinping's socialist ideology with Chinese characteristics, constantly enhance willpower, perseverance and self-control, and grasp the overall political situation. First, adhere to the learning system of the theory center group of the leading group of the secondary college, strive to improve the overall political literacy of the leading group, grasp the latest major policies, and strive to build a learning leading group. The leaders of the secondary college should timely organize theoretical learning and special seminar activities, educate and guide the members of the leading group to learn the party's theoretical knowledge and exercise their theoretical and practical ability, and pay close attention to practical work. We should make great efforts in the study of the party's theoretical knowledge, and take the opportunity of "university study, University discussion and implementation" to carry out the fundamental task of Building Morality and cultivating people. The second is to give full play to the political core role of the general Party branch of the secondary college, timely convey the spirit and requirements of studying and implementing the instructions of the higher Party Organization meeting and the higher leaders' speeches, integrate the party's guiding ideology into the practical work of the secondary college, and ensure that the political position, political principles and political direction of the major issues such as teaching, scientific research and management of the secondary college conform to the practice Jin Ping's thought of socialism with Chinese characteristics in the new era. Third, the leading group and its members should pay attention to the combination of learning with practice, combine the study and discussion with solving the outstanding problems in the development of the college, and combine with personal ideological trends and the actual situation of work, so as to achieve the unity of knowledge and practice, and apply what they have learned. The leading group should lead the undergraduate students to attend the course of situation and policy and "the first lesson at the beginning of school".

2.2. Adhere to the Implementation of Democratic Centralism

In strict accordance with the regulations and requirements of the general branch committee meeting system, the party and government leading group joint meeting system, and the academic and academic degree sub committee meeting system of the college, we should conduct democratic and scientific research, make correct decisions on major issues and solve major problems, and truly manage affairs and people with system. The joint management system of the party and the government is implemented in the college. The work of the party and the government can not be separated, and the division of labor can not be separated.

2.3. Further Improve and Improve the Division Mechanism of Leading Group Members

The work system of leading cadres contacting teaching and research section, laboratory, Party branch, student grade and other departments and directly contacting and serving the masses should be implemented. Through grassroots visits and investigations, on-site office meetings, and the establishment of "Party member leading cadre post" as the first question and responsibility, the grassroots work should be put into the focus of the overall work, and the difficulties and problems concerned and existing at the grassroots level should be solved in a timely manner.

3. To be Realistic, Realistic and Pragmatic, to Give Full Play to the Political Functions of the Grass-roots Party Organizations of Secondary Colleges, to Unite and Lead the Majority of Teachers and Students to Implement the Decision-making and Deployment of the CPC Central Committee

3.1. Strengthen the Leading Group and the Members of the Group to Earnestly Fulfill the Political Responsibilities of the Branch Construction

First, attach importance to the construction and maintenance of the Party branch, formulate the annual party construction work plan, regularly hold special meetings on the construction of the Party branch, clearly divide the tasks, assign the responsibility to the individual, and make the requirements for the completion time. The second is to increase the promotion work of going deep into the grassroots, pay attention to timely adjust the contact points of grassroots Party branch work, and earnestly achieve the goal of taking the grassroots as the center. Third, we should conscientiously deploy the assessment system for members of Grass-roots party organizations, conduct targeted research in combination with the actual situation, examine the common and prominent problems existing in Grass-roots party branches, adhere to the standards, and strictly check.

3.2. Innovate the Working Methods of Party Building and Strive to Improve the Quality of Party Building

To broaden the thinking of Party building and enrich the content of Party construction, first, to promote the overall progress of the Grass-roots Party branch through demonstration and guidance with the goal of "five good party branches", and actively carry out innovation activities in the party construction. Second, vigorously implement the party construction innovation project. To explore an innovative model suitable for secondary colleges, enrich the content of Party building, innovate the party building methods, improve the quality of Party building, and fully show the party organizations at the Grass-roots level and the style of teachers and students of secondary colleges. With the celebration of the centenary of the founding of the party as the carrier, we will carry out the special party day activities with characteristics, integrate political education and political training into the classroom and integrate them into life.

3.3. Constantly Improve the Working Mechanism of Party Building and Play the Role of Political Core

First, in the fundamental system, we must persist in the requirement of "serving the party and educating people for the country" and putting forward the requirements of "general education for the party and education for the country", which centers around the Central Committee, the general situation of service and general secretary Xi Jinping teachers' Day. We should clarify the guarantee role of Party organizations in the direction of the college and the reform and development of education and teaching in the two level colleges and universities, and supervise the two level colleges running schools according to law and regulating the management. Second, in terms of the basic system, we should improve the rules of procedure of the party and government joint conference and academic committee, and standardize the work process of Party building and the construction of Party style and clean government. Third, according to the requirements of "never forget the original intention and remember the mission" put forward by the Fourth Plenary Session of the 19th CPC Central Committee, and in combination with the spirit of the Fifth Plenary Session of the 19th CPC Central Committee, we should further improve the system of Party lessons, situation and policy lessons and the first lesson, and strictly implement the party's "three meetings and one lesson", organizing life meetings and other necessary activities and systems.

3.4. Focus on the Fundamental Task of Cultivating Morality and Talents, and Integrate Ideological and Political Education into the Whole Process of Education and Teaching

First, we should continue to implement the spirit of the National Conference on Ideological and political work in Colleges and universities, and form a great ideological and political pattern under the leadership of the general Party branch of the secondary college and the joint management of all Grass-roots party branches in the college. Second, combined with the characteristics of the college discipline, we should further promote the ideological and political education of the curriculum, integrate the ideological and political education into the professional education, constantly expand the methods and ways of Ideological and political education of the curriculum, and strive to realize the practical education and characteristic education. Improve the quality of personnel training.

4. We Will Fully Implement the Responsibility of Strictly Governing the Party, Strictly Abide by Political Discipline and Rules, and Strive to Build a Clean Leadership

4.1. Implement the Main Responsibility and Supervision Responsibility of Strictly Governing the Party

The general Party branch of the secondary college should fully exercise the main responsibility of the general Party branch in the party construction work. In the party construction work of the secondary college, the Secretary of the general Party branch should be the first responsible person, and other leaders should implement the system of one post and two responsibilities, so as to implement the strict party management in all work. We should constantly improve the management ability of the party organizations in secondary colleges, and integrate the party's system and theory into the education and teaching life.

4.2. Strive to Promote the Construction of Party Style and Clean Government

The first is to hold regular joint meetings between the party and the government to study the work of the college to comprehensively and strictly govern the party. Through strengthening mutual supervision, the construction of Party discipline and work style of the secondary college is strengthened to consolidate the achievements of the education of Party style and clean government. Second, we should pay attention to strengthening discipline education among party members, cadres, teachers and students. Adhere to the Discipline Inspection Committee of the general branch to give all Party members an honest and clean party lesson, hold a special training conference on Party style and honest government education, and carry out warning education activities.

5. Set the Right Political Direction and Strive to Train Builders and Successors of Socialism with Chinese Characteristics

Political direction is the prerequisite and primary task of the party's political construction, and the party's political direction leads the direction of school running. Hold high the great banner of socialism with China's characteristics in China's new era, fully implement the party's educational policy, uphold the party's overall leadership in education, ensure that the two level colleges and universities are in the right political direction and do a solid job in cultivating Xi Jinping's qualified builders and reliable successors with Chinese characteristics.

5.1. Focus on Personnel Training and Strengthen the Construction of Teachers' Ethics

We should integrate the ideological and political education of college students into our daily life and education classes, deepen the construction of teachers' morality and style, guide teachers to grasp the ideological trends of college students based on moral education, carry out ideological and political education in combination with the characteristics of disciplines and majors in education and teaching, and cultivate young college students to be firm believers and faithful practitioners of the great ideal of communism.

5.2. Optimize the Political Ecology and Cultivate a Clean and Healthy Environment for Education

In order to integrate the socialist core values into the teaching and management work, it is necessary to timely carry out the party political life meeting within the leading cadres, popularize the relevant regulations and systems, have the correct work orientation and political standards, implement the standards of cadres and teachers in the work life, and encourage the cadres and teachers to dare to take responsibility, work steadfastly and seek no selfish interests in their work posts In order to promote the healthy development of the overall education environment, we should improve the party spirit, strive to be the noble quality of "Four Haves" teachers.

5.3. Strengthen Inner-party Supervision and Promote the Development of Strict Party Management

We should focus on the implementation of the party discipline and rules such as the code of political life within the party and the regulations on supervision within the party, gradually improve the awareness of supervision within the party through centralized learning and other measures, implement the "one post with two responsibilities", and implement the report on work, honesty and personal matters into the work of leading cadres. We should make leading cadres accustomed to working and living under the supervision and restraint environment, and let them know how to be awed We should guard against fear and keep the bottom line.

5.4. Always Maintain the Political Nature and Enhance the New Responsibilities and New Actions of Leading Cadres

The leading bodies of the two grade colleges should regard political construction as the basic skill of running schools, and adhere to the guidance of Xi Jinping's new socialist ideology with Chinese characteristics in all aspects of work. In particular, the team members must have a spirit of enterprising and never slacking socialism, and the spirit of bravely fighting bravely, not afraid of hardships and moving forward without difficulty. China should take the responsibility and act as the Central Committee of the party. The Decision-making should be implemented in the education work, and the socialist political responsibility entrusted by the party and the people should be strictly fulfilled with the socialist spirit of seizing the day and serving the public.

6. Summary

In the process of the construction of Grass-roots party organizations in secondary colleges, colleges and universities should always adhere to the party's overall leadership, give full play to the political function of Grass-roots party organizations, strictly govern the party in an all-round way, continuously promote the anti-corruption education of Grass-roots party organizations, grasp the correct political direction and school running direction, take moral cultivation as the fundamental task, and take students as the center to promote education and teaching reform, so as to realize the goal of educating and serving the party The goal of national education.
